Teen Power and Control Wheel

Adapted with gratitude by Community Safety Network from the National Center on Domestic and Sexual Violence, and the Domestic Abuse Intervention Project.

- One in three adolescents in the U.S. is a victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner, a figure that far exceeds rates of other types of youth violence.
- Violent behavior typically begins between the ages of 12 and 18.
- Only 33% of teens involved in a violent relationships told someone about their abuse
- 81% of parents believe teen dating violence is not an issue or admit they don't know if it's an issue.

"I am pictured here with the lovely Essy Gicheru, one of my students from Kenyatta University where I was teaching Theatre for Development. We are developing an original play based on a short story called Tracking the Scent of my Mother by Muthoni Garland. Essy played the mother character who is a survivor of sexual and physical abuse. We performed this with 8 Kenyan artists at the Kenya International Theatre Festival in Nairobi this past November to increase awareness
